

Bel Air Baseball Code of Conduct

Expectations for Coaches

- Set a good example for your players, umpires, parents, spectators and other coaches to follow.
- Instruct your players in safety first, sportsmanship second, and winning last.
- Respect the judgment of the umpires and abide by the rules.
- Treat all coaches, players, umpires and fans with respect.
- Teach Baseball
- Have Fun!

Expectations for Players

- Set a good example for your teammates, coaches, umpires and spectators to follow.
- Treat your teammates, coaches, umpires and spectators with respect.
- Respect the judgment of the umpires and abide by the rules.
- Be a good sport.
- Treat the equipment like it's your own.
- Have Fun!

Expectations for Parents and Spectators

- Remember it's a game for the players not the parents!
- No negative comments or foul language
- Set a good example for the players, coaches, umpires, parents and other spectators to follow.
- Respect the judgment of the umpires and abide by the rules.
- Treat all coaches, players, umpires and fans with respect.
- Celebrate the players' successes.
- Have Fun!